Dear Kethrin,

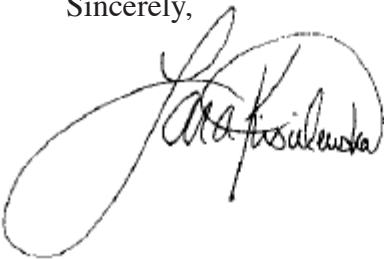

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Ink on Pixels. Over the past two years we have worked together extensively on the Communications Committee of the National Association of Women Business Owners, NYC Chapter, and it has always been a pleasure for me when you volunteer to be the lead designer on a project.

Our first experience together was with the five-piece invitation for the 2003 Signature Awards. After working with you to coordinate the feedback of many parties under a tight deadline, I came to appreciate your attention to detail and quick turnaround, and felt like you could be entrusted with the 44-page 2003 Signature Awards Program. That program was by far the best designed we have had in the entire history of the awards, and I was proud to display it as a showpiece for our NAWBO chapter.

After that, we worked together on a postcard invitation that was extremely tricky because we had to blend the branded design of one of our sponsors with our own corporate identity, and again, you came through with such an ingenious, elegant solution that I was amazed. And to top it off, you somehow managed to improve on last year's Signature Awards program design with the 48-page 2004 edition, working under even tighter deadlines and turning around masses of last-minute edits.

And through it all — from the difficult design challenges to the ultra-tight deadlines to the careful coordination of multiple sets of edits — you remained extremely professional and even cheerful, an absolute pleasure to work with. Kethrin, I couldn't be happier with my experience working with you and Ink on Pixels on every NAWBO design project that has come your way.

Sincerely,

Lara J. Kisielewska
President-Elect, NAWBO-NYC
